

Rusks Hosts After UN Concert

CPYRGHT

THE SECRETARY of State and Mrs. Dean Rusk will give a gala reception in the beautiful John Quincy Adams Room of the Department of State following Monday's concert by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Symphony and soloist Van Cliburn.

The concert is a salute to the 16th anniversary of the United Nations and is being presented under the patronage of the President and Mrs. Kennedy and the Canadian Ambassador and Mrs. A. D. P. Heeney. The Rusks' party will honor the Ambassador and Mrs. Heeney, Van Cliburn and Geoffrey Waddington, director of the Symphony.

FORTY-FIVE chiefs of diplomatic missions in Washington have accepted invitations to the concert, and the Attorney General and Mrs. Robert F. Kennedy head the group of Government officials who will be there to do honor to the United Nations.

Special guests will be 80 students from International Student House, many of whom will be wearing their national dress.

The concert is for the benefit of the United States Committee for the United Nations, a nonpartisan, non-profit committee of national organizations. Its chairman, Robert S. Benjamin of New York, was appointed by the President, and will also be here for the concert.

COMING IN from Hollywood to attend the concert will be Natalie Wood, Robert Wise and Harold Mirisch, who are respectively star, director and producer of the film, "West Side Story," which will have its Washington premiere on Nov. 14 at the Uptown Theater.

Mrs. H. Gates Lloyd, chairman of the women's committee for the film premiere, is taking the opportunity of giving a cocktail party today in honor of the "West Side Story" people while they are in town, and to have them meet the members of the Board of Trustees of the Institute of Contemporary Arts, for whose international program the premiere will be a benefit.

The cocktail party will be held at Mrs. Lloyd's home on 34th st.
